LEGENDS, SPIRITS & STARS

OCTOBER 13, 2018

Our season opens with a program in celebration of the completion of the Spirit of the Rivers project. Lawrence University trumpet professor John Daniel is featured in Trumpeting the Stone, a musical portrait of the Oneida, "the Standing Stone People," and their resilient culture. Including a pulse-pounding evocation of the Battle of the Little Big Horn, John Harmon's Crazy Horse Symphony is colorful, moving and uplifting; a masterpiece of formal clarity, brilliant orchestration and deeply felt emotion.

UNDER NORTHERN SKIES

FEBRUARY 9, 2019

Glinka, Goedicke, Rimsky-Korsakov, and Shostakovich

A buoyant overture, a scintillating trumpet feature and a melodious and colorful suite are the complements to the brooding, dramatic and heroic Fifth Symphony of Shostakovich, an outstanding masterpiece of 20th century music and a triumph of the human spirit over political and artistic oppression.

Soloist:
William D. Hampton, trumpet
