

Manitowoc Symphony Orchestra
FAMILY
 2025-26 Concert Season

This season, we honor the many hands and hearts that have helped our orchestra grow. We invite you to join us as we welcome home beloved faces, spotlight the incredible talent nurtured right here on the Lakeshore, and celebrate the rich musical journey that has shaped us.

With music that reflects where we've been, and looking forward to where we're going, we come together as a family, inspired by the beauty we create and share.

Come celebrate 75 years of music, memories, and the enduring magic of community!

Dylan T. Chmura-Moore,
 MSO Music Director

Sibelius' radiant second symphony—a favorite of our founding Music Director Karl Miller—launches the season.

We recognize music education as Holy Family Conservatory turns 100 with pianists DIANA SHAPIRO and STANISLAVA VARSHAVSKI performing a Mozart double piano concerto—a piece that's all about family and togetherness.

Manitowoc Symphony Orchestra's revered former Music Director WAYNE WILDMAN returns to perform music near and dear. Concertos by Bach and Handel offer celestial sounds perfectly suited to the holiday season and full of gratitude.

The CAPITOL CIVIC CENTRE COMMUNITY CHORALE joins in the festive joy with new carols by the legendary Alfred Burt, plus some traditional favorites to bring us peace.

George Gershwin's playful Piano Concerto brings virtuoso pianist KELLEEN STRUTZ back home to the Lakeshore. Experience the sweeping emotions of great opera—love, despair, and defiance—as Lincoln High alumni and rising stars, soprano CASSIE GLAESER and tenor ZACHARY GLAESER, perform arias from Carmen and Turandot.

Native son ANDREW DUNLAP returns to the stage with Bruch's Violin Concerto No. 1—a piece as lush and passionate as they come. And, as part of our 75th season, MSO kicks off an exciting new concert cycle: over the next nine years, every Beethoven symphony will be performed—masterpieces that have shaped the course of music for centuries. Beethoven's vibrant and thrilling first symphony sets our journey in motion.

MSO FAMILY
Celebrating 75 years of music connections.

MSO
Classically cool.

For 75 years, the Manitowoc Symphony Orchestra has been making music, memories, and a difference here on the Lakeshore. With unforgettable concerts and growing educational programs—including our partnership with the Manitowoc Public School District—MSO is proud to inspire the next generation of musicians and music lovers.

“We’re lucky to have such amazing talent in our small community ...the quality the Manitowoc Symphony brings is something you just have to hear to believe!”
— KARI & JIM CHECK

“We are truly blessed to have the Manitowoc Symphony Orchestra! ...every performance is a story being told through the vision of our brilliant conductor and all the fabulous musicians that come together each season. What a treasure!”
— JULIA AND TOM ANGST

“When I relocated to Manitowoc, I was truly astonished to discover the city had its own symphony orchestra—and an outstanding one at that!”
— KAREN STEINGRABER

“Every year I am amazed and impressed with the Symphony’s innovation and creativity. Adding the ‘movies’ is an example that has been magical. Be a season ticket holder and be part of the MSO legacy.”
— DIANNE FINNEGAN, MSO BOARD MEMBER
