

Welcome to '22-'23

The most POPULAR music of today and throughout history!

With MSO, you are at home with some of the world's greatest music. Beethoven, Brahms, Haydn, Mozart, Grieg, Tchaikovsky, John Williams... you betcha!

There's a reason that this season's music has been so admired, enjoyed, and POPular over the years.

It means something to you—to us. It's music for all of us and boy does it sound good!

You'll be delighted, mesmerized, and moved to tears!

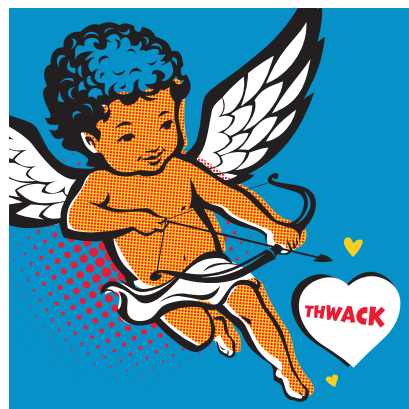

Become a season subscriber and don't miss a moment! I and the members of the orchestra are looking forward to seeing you @ The Show.

—Dylan Chmura-Moore, MSO Music Director

MANITOWOC SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA 2022-2023

MSO
Classically cool.

MSO's first concert was held in 1952. Since then, our civic orchestra has served generations of music lovers and students in the community through concerts, special events, and educational programming.

MSO Music Director
Dylan Chmura-Moore

With the creation of the Karl Miller Society, our push to bolster the endowment, the support received from the ongoing Endowed Chairs campaign, and our ever-expanding educational offerings—most recently highlighted by our continuing partnership with the Manitowoc Public School District—MSO is proudly setting itself up to serve the Lakeshore for generations to come.

Be part of the good we're creating. Visit our website at manitowocsymphony.org/stronger or call our Executive Director at 920-684-3492 to give or get involved with the Symphony today.

EAT, DRINK AND BE MERRY!

MSO has partnered with the Courthouse Pub to offer a gourmet dinner after our holiday matinee. Choose the Beef Stroganoff, Vegetarian, or Apple Cinnamon Pork Tenderloin entree, plus green beans, 'apple pie' bread pudding, and a spiced cranberry frose. Purchase now and you'll receive vouchers to be used after the matinee concert on Dec. 11, 2022—for dine-in or curbside pick-up.
